On June 22, 2009, the Board of Directors of Forward Air Corporation (the “Company”), in accordance with Article IX of the Company’s existing amended and restated bylaws (the “Existing Bylaws”), adopted Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Amended and Restated Bylaws”) effective July 1, 2009 to supersede and replace the Company’s Existing Bylaws. The principle revisions to the Existing Bylaws include the following: (i) the addition of advanced notice provisions for shareholder proposals and nominations of directors at meetings of the Company’s shareholders, (ii) the addition of provisions requiring the Company’s shareholders to take certain actions in connection with the calling of a special meeting of the Company’s shareholders, (iii) the addition of electronic notice provisions with respect to director and shareholder meetings and (iv) certain other technical amendments. A copy of the Amended and Restated Bylaws is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Deadline for Submission to Shareholders of Proposals to be Presented at the 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Any proposal intended to be presented for action at the 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders by any shareholder of the Company must be received by the Secretary of the Company at its principal executive offices not later than December 3, 2009 in order for such proposal to be considered for inclusion in the Company’s proxy statement and form of proxy relating to its 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to require the Company to include any shareholder proposal which does not meet all the requirements for such inclusion established by Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

For other shareholder proposals to be timely (but not considered for inclusion in the proxy statement for the 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders), a shareholder’s notice must not be received by the Secretary of the Company before December 3, 2009 or after January 2, 2010 and the proposal and the shareholder must comply with Rule 14a-4 under the Exchange Act. In the event that a shareholder proposal intended to be presented for action at the next Annual Meeting is received before December 3, 2009 or after January 2, 2010, proxies solicited by the Board of Directors in connection with the Annual Meeting will be permitted to use their discretionary voting authority with respect to the proposal, whether or not the proposal is discussed in the proxy statement for the Annual Meeting.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF FORWARD AIR CORPORATION

Effective July 1, 2009

ARTICLE I

SHAREHOLDERS

Section 1.1 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders of Forward Air Corporation (the “Corporation”) shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation in the State of Tennessee or at such other place within or without the State of Tennessee as may be determined by the board of directors of the Corporation (the “Board of Directors” or the “Board”) and as shall be designated in the notice of such meeting, on such date and at such time as may be determined by the Board of Directors. The purpose of the annual meeting shall be to elect directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting in accordance with these Amended and Restated Bylaws (these “Bylaws”).

Section 1.2 Special Meetings.

(i) Generally. Special meetings of the shareholders shall be held upon call of a majority of the Board of Directors, or, subject to the provisions of these Bylaws and unless the charter of the Corporation (the “Charter”) otherwise provides, upon written demand(s) signed, dated and delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation by shareholders holding at least ten percent (10%) of the shares of capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on any issued proposed to be considered at such meeting (the “Special Meeting Percentage”), except when the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as amended (the “Business Corporation Act”), confers upon the shareholders the right to demand the call of such meeting and fix the date thereof. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of shareholders as shall have been brought before such special meeting pursuant to the Corporation’s notice of meeting.

(ii) Shareholder Requested Special Meetings.

(a) Any shareholder of record seeking to have shareholders request a special meeting shall, by sending written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation (the “Record Date Request Notice”) by registered mail, return receipt requested, request the Board of Directors to fix a record date to determine the shareholders entitled to request a special meeting (the “Request Record Date”). The Record Date Request Notice shall (1) set forth the purpose of the meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on at it, (2) be signed by one or more shareholders of record as of the date of signature (or their agents duly authorized in writing), (3) bear the date of signature of each such shareholder (or such agent) and (4) contain all the information required by Section 1.13(iii) of these Bylaws and (5) set forth the information relating to each such shareholder that must be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest (even if an election contest is not involved), or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A (or any successor provision) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Upon receiving the Record Date Request Notice, the Board of Directors may fix a Request Record Date. The Request Record Date shall not precede and shall not be more than ten (10) days after the close of business on the date on which the resolution fixing the Request Record Date is adopted by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors, within ten (10) days after the date on which a valid Record Date Request Notice is received, fails to adopt a resolution fixing the Request Record Date and make a public announcement (as permitted by law) of such Request Record Date, the Request Record Date shall be the close of business on the tenth day after the first date on which the Record Date Request Notice is received by the Secretary of the Corporation.

(b) In order for any shareholder to request a special meeting of the shareholders, one or more written requests for a special meeting signed by shareholders of record (or their agents duly authorized in writing) as of the Request Record Date entitled to cast at least the Special Meeting Percentage of all of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting (the “Special Meeting Request”) shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation. In addition, the Special Meeting Request shall (1) set forth the purpose of the meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on at it (which shall be limited to those lawful matters set forth in the Record Date Request Notice received by the Secretary), (2) bear the date of signature of each such shareholder (or such agent) signing the Special Meeting Request, (3) contain the information required by Section 1.13(iii) of these Bylaws and (4) set forth the name and address, as they appear in the Corporation’s books, of each shareholder signing such request (or on whose behalf the Special Meeting Request is signed), the class, series and number of all shares of stock of the Corporation which are owned of record or beneficially by each such shareholder, and the nominee holder for, and number of, shares owned by such shareholder beneficially but not of record, shall be sent to the Secretary by registered mail, return receipt requested, and shall be received by the Secretary within sixty (60) days (or, if independent inspectors of election are appointed pursuant to clause (f) below, within sixty-five (65) days) after the Request Record Date. Any requesting shareholder may revoke his, her or its request for a special meeting at any time by written revocation delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation.

(c) The Secretary shall inform the requesting shareholders of the reasonably estimated cost of preparing and mailing the notice of meeting (including the Corporation’s proxy materials). The Secretary shall not be required to call a special meeting upon shareholder request and such meeting shall not be held unless, in addition to the documents required by this Section 1.2, the Secretary receives payment of such reasonably estimated cost prior to the mailing of any notice of the meeting.

(d) Except as provided in the next sentence, any special meeting shall be held at such place, date and time as may be designated by the Board of Directors. In the case of any special meeting called by the Secretary upon the request of shareholders (a “Shareholder Requested Meeting”), such meeting shall be held at such place, date and time as may be designated by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the date of any Shareholder Requested Meeting shall be not more than seventy (70) days nor less than ten (10) days after the record date for such meeting (the “Meeting Record Date”); and provided further that if the Board of Directors fails to designate, within ten days after the date that a valid Special Meeting Request is actually received by the Secretary (the “Delivery Date”), a date and time for a Shareholder Requested Meeting, then such meeting shall be held at 2:00 p.m. local time on the 70th day after the Meeting Record Date or, if such 70th day is not a Business Day (as defined below), on the first preceding Business Day; and provided further that in the event that the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for a Shareholder Requested Meeting within ten (10) days after the Delivery Date, then such meeting shall be held at the principal executive office of the Corporation. In fixing a date for any special meeting, the President, Chief Executive Officer or Board of Directors may consider such factors as he, she or it deems relevant within the good faith exercise of business judgment, including, without limitation, the nature of the matters to be considered, the facts and circumstances surrounding any request for the meeting and any plan of the Board of Directors to call an annual meeting or a special meeting. In the case of any Shareholder Requested Meeting, if the Board of Directors fails to fix a Meeting Record Date that is a date within thirty (30) days after the Delivery Date, then the close of business on the 30th day after the Delivery Date shall be the Meeting Record Date.

(e) If written revocations of requests for the special meeting have been delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation and the result is that shareholders of record (or their agents duly authorized in writing), as of the Request Record Date, entitled to cast less than the Special Meeting Percentage have delivered, and not revoked, requests for a special meeting to the Secretary of the Corporation, the Secretary of the Corporation shall: (i) if the notice of meeting has not already been mailed, refrain from mailing the notice of the meeting and send to all requesting shareholders who have not revoked such requests written notice of any revocation of a request for the special meeting, or (ii) if the notice of meeting has been mailed and if the Secretary first sends to all requesting shareholders who have not revoked requests for a special meeting written notice of any revocation of a request for the special meeting and written notice of the Secretary’s intention to revoke the notice of the meeting, revoke the notice of the meeting at any time before ten days before the commencement of the meeting. Any request for a special meeting received after a revocation by the Secretary of the Corporation of a notice of a meeting shall be considered a request for a new special meeting.

(f) The Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President or the Board of Directors may appoint regionally or nationally recognized independent inspectors of elections to act as the agent of the Corporation for the purpose of promptly performing a ministerial review of the validity of any purported Special Meeting Request received by the Secretary of the Corporation. For the purpose of permitting the inspectors to perform such review, no such purported request shall be deemed to have been received by the Secretary until the earlier of (i) five (5) days after actual receipt by the Secretary of the Corporation of such purported request and (ii) such date as the independent inspectors certify to the Corporation that the valid requests received by the Secretary of the Corporation represent at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of stock that would be entitled to vote at such meeting. Nothing contained in this Section 1.2(b) shall in any way be construed to suggest or imply that the Corporation or any shareholder shall not be entitled to contest the validity of any request, whether during or after such five (5) day period, or to take any other action (including, without limitation, the commencement, prosecution or defense of any litigation with respect thereto, and the seeking of injunctive relief in such litigation).

(g) For purposes of these Bylaws, “Business Day” shall mean any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions in the State of Tennessee are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

Section 1.3 Notice of Meetings. The notice of all meetings of shareholders shall be given in writing or by electronic transmission, shall state the date, time and place of the meeting, and, unless it is the annual meeting, shall indicate that it is being issued by or at the direction of the person or persons calling the meeting. The notice of an annual meeting should state that the meeting is called for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting and shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting if any other action is to be taken at such annual meeting which could be taken at a special meeting. The notice of a special meeting shall, in all instances, indicate that it is being issued by or at the direction of the person or persons calling the meeting and state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Notice of any meeting shall be given to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting not less than ten (10) days nor more than two (2) months before the date of the meeting, to each shareholder at such shareholder’s record address or at such other address which such shareholder may have furnished in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. If a meeting is adjourned to another time or place and if any announcement of the adjourned time or place is made at the meeting, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting unless the Board of Directors, after adjournment, fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than four (4) months after the date fixed for the original meeting. At the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any shareholder who submits to the Corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records a signed waiver of notice, in person or by proxy, before or after the meeting. The attendance of a shareholder at a meeting without objection at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) to the lack of notice or defective notice of such meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice by such shareholder. Any previously scheduled annual meeting of the Corporation’s shareholders may be postponed, and any previously scheduled special meeting of the Corporation’s shareholders may be postponed or canceled, by resolution of the Board of Directors upon public notice (as permitted by law) given prior to the time previously scheduled for such meeting of shareholders.

Section 1.4 Quorum. The holders of record of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or by proxy, shall, except as otherwise provided by law or the Charter, constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders, provided that when a specified item of business is required to be voted on by a class or series, voting as a class, the holders of a majority of the shares of such class or series shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such specified item of business. When a quorum is once present to organize a meeting, it is not broken by the subsequent withdrawal of any shareholder or for adjournment of the meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for the meeting.

Section 1.5 Conduct of Meetings. Meetings of the shareholders shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, if any, or, if the Chairman of the Board is not present, by the Lead Independent Director, if any, or if the Lead Independent Director is not present, by the President, or, if the President is not present, by a Vice President, or, if neither the Chairman of the Board, the Lead Independent Director, the President nor a Vice President is present, by a chairman to be chosen at the meeting. The Secretary of the Corporation, or in the Secretary's absence, an Assistant Secretary, shall act as secretary of every meeting, but if neither the Secretary nor an Assistant Secretary is present, the person presiding over the meeting shall choose any person present to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 1.6 Voting. For each share of the capital stock of the Corporation registered in his name on the books of the Corporation the holder thereof shall have the number of votes per share specified in the Charter. Whenever under the provisions of the Charter any shareholder is entitled to more or less than one (1) vote for any share of capital stock of the Corporation held by such shareholder, every reference in these Bylaws to a plurality or other proportion of stock shall refer to such plurality or other proportion of the votes of such stock. At each meeting of the shareholders, each shareholder having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy appointed by an instrument in writing subscribed by such shareholder, or by his duly authorized attorney, and bearing a date not more than eleven (11) months prior to such meeting, unless such instrument provides for a longer period. Every shareholder entitled to vote at any meeting may so vote by proxy and shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share entitled to vote and held by such shareholder. At all elections of directors the voting may, but need not, be by ballot and a plurality of the votes cast thereat shall elect, except as otherwise required by law or the Charter. Except as otherwise required by law, or the Charter, any other action shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast.

Section 1.7 Record Date. Subject to Section 1.2 of these Bylaws, for the purpose of determining the shareholders entitled to notice of, to demand a special meeting, to vote or take any other action at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to or dissent from any proposal without a meeting, or for the purpose of determining the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or the allotment of any rights, or for the purpose of any other action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders. Such date shall not be more than seventy (70) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than seventy (70) days prior to any other action. If no record date is fixed, the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, to demand a special meeting, to vote or take any other action at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if no notice is given, the day on which the meeting is held.

The record date for determining shareholders for any purpose other than that specified in the preceding clause shall be at the close of business on the day on which the resolution of the Board of Directors relating thereto is adopted. When a determination of shareholders of record entitled to notice of, to demand a special meeting, to vote or take any other action at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this Section 1.7, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof, unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date under this Section 1.7 for the adjourned meeting; provided, however, if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than four (4) months after the date fixed for the original meeting, the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date.

Section 1.8 Shareholder Lists. An alphabetical list by voting group, and within each voting group by class or series of shares, of each shareholder's name, address and share ownership entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting as of the record date, certified by the Secretary or other officer responsible for its preparation, or by the transfer agent, if any, shall be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning two (2) Business Days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting upon the request thereat or prior thereto of any shareholder. If the right to vote at any meeting is challenged, the inspectors of election, if any, or the person presiding thereat, shall require such list of shareholders to be produced as evidence of the right of the persons challenged to vote at such meeting, and all persons who appear from such list to be shareholders entitled to vote thereat may vote at such meeting. Nothing in this Section 1.8 shall require the Corporation to include electronic mail addresses or other electronic contact information on such list.

Section 1.9 Proxy Representation. Every shareholder may authorize another person or persons to act for such shareholder by proxy in all matters in which a shareholder is entitled to participate, whether by waiving notice of any meeting, voting or participating at a meeting, or expressing consent or dissent without a meeting. Every proxy must be signed by the shareholder or such shareholder's attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the shareholder executing it, except as otherwise provided by the Business Corporation Act.

Section 1.10 Inspectors. At all meetings of shareholders, the proxies and ballots shall be received, taken in charge and examined, and all questions concerning the qualification of voters, the validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of proxies and of votes shall be decided by two (2) inspectors of election. Such inspectors of election together with one alternate to serve in the event of death, inability or refusal by any of such inspectors of election to serve at the meeting, shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, or, if no such appointment or appointments shall have been made, then by the presiding officer at the meeting. If for any reason the inspectors of election so appointed shall fail to attend, or refuse or be unable to serve, a substitute or substitutes shall be appointed to serve as inspector or inspectors of election, in their place or stead, by the presiding officer at the meeting. No director or candidate for the office of director shall be appointed as an inspector. Each inspector shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation faithfully to execute the duties of inspector at such meeting with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors, if any, shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the validity and effect of proxies, and shall receive all votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the result, and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders. On request of the person presiding at the meeting or any shareholder, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, question or matter determined by them and execute a certificate as to any fact found by them. Each inspector shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for such inspector's services, to be paid by the Corporation.

Section 1.11 Actions Without Meetings. Whenever shareholders are required or permitted to take any action by vote, such action may be taken without a meeting on written consent setting forth the action so taken, signed by the holders of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon; unless some number less than all of the holders of all of the outstanding shares is required by applicable law or the Charter. This section shall not be construed to alter or modify any provision of law or of the Charter under which the written consent of the holders of less than all outstanding shares is sufficient for corporate action.

Section 1.12 Meaning of Certain Terms. As used herein in respect of the right to notice of a meeting of shareholders or a waiver thereof or to participate or vote thereat or to consent or dissent in writing in lieu of a meeting, as the case may be, the term “share” or “shareholder” or “shareholders” refers to an outstanding share or shares and to a holder or holders of record of outstanding shares, when the Corporation is authorized to issue only one (1) class of shares, and such reference is also intended to include any outstanding share or shares and any holder or holders of record of outstanding shares of any class upon which or upon whom the Charter confers such rights, where there are two (2) or more classes or series of shares, or upon which or upon whom the Business Corporation Act confers such rights, notwithstanding that the Charter may provide for more than one (1) class or series of shares, one (1) or more of which are limited or denied such rights thereunder.

Section 1.13 Advance Notice Provisions for Business to be Transacted at Annual Meeting.

(i) No business may be transacted at an annual meeting of shareholders, other than business that is either (a) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors (or any duly authorized committee thereof), (b) otherwise properly brought before the annual meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors (or any duly authorized committee thereof) or (c) otherwise properly brought before the annual meeting by any shareholder of the Corporation (i) who is shareholder of record on the date of the giving of the notice provided for in this Section and on the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at such annual meeting and (ii) who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section.

(ii) A shareholder’s notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year’s annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than thirty (30) days or delayed by more than sixty (60) days from the anniversary date of the preceding year’s annual meeting, notice by the shareholder must be so delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.

(iii) A shareholder’s notice to the Secretary must be in writing and set forth as to each matter such shareholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting: (i) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting; (ii) the name and address of such shareholder as they appear on the Corporation’s books and of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; (iii) the following information regarding the ownership interests of the shareholder or such other beneficial owner, which shall be supplemented in writing by the shareholder not later than ten (10) days after the record date for the meeting to disclose such interests as of the record date: (A) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially or of record by such shareholder and such beneficial owner; (B) option, warrant, convertible security, stock appreciation right, or similar right with an exercise or conversion privilege or a settlement payment or mechanism at a price related to any class or series of shares of the Corporation or with a value derived in whole or in part from the value of any class or series of shares of the Corporation, whether or not such instrument or right shall be subject to settlement in the underlying class or series of capital stock of the Corporation or otherwise (a “Derivative Instrument”) directly or indirectly owned beneficially by such shareholder and any other direct or indirect opportunity to profit or share in any profit derived from any increase or decrease in the value of shares of the Corporation; (C) any proxy, contract, agreement, arrangement, understanding, or relationship pursuant to which such shareholder has a right to vote any shares of any security of the Corporation; (D) any “short interest” in any security of the Corporation (for purposes of this Section 1.13 and Section 2.4, a person shall be deemed to have a short interest in a security if such person directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise, has the opportunity to profit or share in any profit derived from any decrease in the value of the subject security); (E) any rights to dividends on the shares of the Corporation owned beneficially by such shareholder that are separated or separable from the underlying shares of the Corporation; (F) any proportionate interest in shares of the Corporation or Derivative Instruments held, directly or indirectly, by a general or limited partnership in which such shareholder is a general partner or, directly or indirectly, beneficially owns an interest in a general partner; and (G) any performance-related fees (other than an asset-based fee) to which such shareholder is entitled based on any increase or decrease in the value of shares of the Corporation or Derivative Instruments, if any, as of the date of such notice, including, without limitation, any such interests held by members of such shareholder’s immediate family sharing the same household; (iv) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such shareholder and any other person or persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such shareholder and any material interest of such shareholder in such business; and (v) a representation that such shareholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to bring such business before the meeting. No business shall be conducted at the annual meeting of shareholders except business brought before the annual meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.13 or in Section 2.4, provided, however, that once business has been properly brought before the annual meeting in accordance with such procedures, nothing in this Section 1.13 or in Section 2.4 shall be deemed to preclude discussion by any shareholder of any such business.

(iv) If the chairman of an annual meeting determines that business was not properly brought before the annual meeting in accordance with the foregoing procedures, the chairman of the meeting shall declare to the meeting that the business was not properly brought before the meeting and such business shall not be transacted.

(v) No adjournment or postponement of a meeting of shareholders shall commence a new period for the giving of notice of a shareholder proposal hereunder with respect to such meeting.

ARTICLE II

DIRECTORS

Section 2.1 Functions and Definition. The business of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of its Board of Directors. The use of the phrase “entire Board of Directors” herein refers to the total number of directors which the Corporation would have if there were no vacancies.

Section 2.2 Qualification and Number. Each director shall be at least eighteen (18) years of age. A director need not be a shareholder, a citizen of the United States, nor a resident of the State of Tennessee. The number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors shall be not less than the number required by law; such number may be fixed from time to time by action of the Board of Directors or of the shareholders. The number of directors may be increased or decreased by action of the Board of Directors or shareholders, provided that any action of the Board of Directors to effect such increase or decrease shall require the vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Section 2.3 Election and Term. Directors who are elected at an annual meeting of shareholders, and directors who are elected in the interim to fill vacancies and newly created directorships, shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until their respective successors have been elected and qualified. In the interim between annual meetings of shareholders or special meetings of shareholders called for the election of directors, the creation of newly created directorships and to fill any vacancies in the Board of Directors, including vacancies resulting from the removal of directors for cause or without cause, may be filled by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum exists.

Section 2.4 Advance Notice Provisions for Election of Directors.

(i) Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the following procedures shall be eligible for election as directors of the Corporation. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at any annual meeting of shareholders, or at any special meeting of shareholders called for the purpose of electing directors, (a) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors (or any duly authorized committee thereof) or (b) by any shareholder of the Corporation (i) who is a shareholder of record on the date of the giving of the notice provided for in this Section and on the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting and (ii) who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section.

(ii) A shareholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation (a) in the case of an annual meeting, not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the shareholder must be so delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made; and (b) in the case of a special meeting of shareholders called for the purpose of electing directors, not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the special meeting was mailed or public announcement of the date of the special meeting was made, whichever first occurs.
